1. INTRODUCTION AND OBJECTIVES

- 1.1 The Board of Directors (“Board”) of Glostrex Berhad (“Company”) commits itself to instilling good corporate governance practices in the Company and its subsidiaries from time to time (“Group”) in accordance with the principles set out in the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance (“MCCG”) as the Board believes that corporate governance is vitally important to the success of the Group’s business.
- 1.2 The Board shall be the focal point of the Group’s corporate governance practices and is ultimately responsible for:
- a. setting the Group’s strategic aims to ensure that necessary resources are in place for the Group to meet its objectives and review its management’s performance and affairs of the Group;
  - b. promoting the Group’s values and standards; and
  - c. ensuring that the Group’s obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.
- 1.3 This Board Charter sets out:
- i. the composition, roles, responsibilities and processes of the Board, individual Directors and management; and
  - ii. the delegation of authority by the Board to various Board Committees (“Board Committees”) to safeguard the Board members in performing their responsibilities on behalf of the Group for the benefit of the Company and its stakeholders.
- 1.4 This Board Charter is subject to the provision of the Companies Act 2016 (“the Act”), Company’s Constitution, ACE Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad (“Bursa Securities”) (“Listing Requirements”), the practices and guidance of the MCCG and any other applicable laws or regulatory requirements.

2. BOARD STRUCTURE

2.1 Board Composition

- 2.1.1 The Board must comprise a balance of Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors (including Independent Non-Executive Directors) such that no individual or a group of individuals can dominate the Board’s decision making. The Board recognises the importance of independence and objectivity in the decision-making process. At least half of the Board shall consist of Independent Non-Executive Directors to ensure a balance of power and authority on the Board.
- 2.1.2 The Board must consist of qualified individuals with diverse set of skills, diversity, expertise and experience from different background to govern the Company.
- 2.1.3 The Constitution of the Company states that unless otherwise determined by the Company in general meeting, the number of Directors must not be less than two (2) (excluding Alternate Director) nor more than fifteen (15). At any one time, at least two (2) or one-third (1/3), whichever is higher, of the Board members must be Independent Directors. The Board shall, with the assistance of the Nomination Committee (“NC”), review the composition and size of the Board from time to time to ensure its effectiveness.

2.1.4 On boardroom diversity, the Board must consist of at least one (1) woman director. The Board is supportive of the gender boardroom diversity recommended by MCCG. The Board through the NC will continuously review the Board composition taking into consideration the appropriate competence, experience, character, integrity and time to effectively discharge his/her role as a Director. The Board endeavours to maintain 30% women Directors on the Board.

2.2 Nomination and Appointments

2.2.1 The appointment of a new Director is a matter for consideration and decision by the Board, upon recommendation from the NC.

2.2.2 The Company Secretary has the responsibility of ensuring that relevant procedures to the appointments of new Directors are properly executed.

2.2.3 In making its recommendation, the NC shall consider the character, experience, competence, integrity and time of the candidates, as well as the following factors:-

- skills, knowledge and expertise;
- age and gender;
- professionalism;
- culture background and diversity;
- commitment;
- contribution and performance; and
- in the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the Board via the NC shall also evaluate the candidates’ ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as are expected from Independent Non-Executive Directors.

2.2.4 Upon the appointment of a Director, the said Director shall provide to Bursa Securities an undertaking prescribed by Bursa Securities in any event not later than fourteen (14) days.

2.2.5 New Directors are expected to have such expertise as to qualify them to make a positive contribution to the Board performance of its duties. New Directors are required to commit sufficient time to attend the Company’s meetings or matters before accepting his/her appointment to the Board.

2.2.6 The Board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing Board members, management or major shareholders for identifying candidates for appointment of Directors. The Board will utilise independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

2.2.7 No person shall be appointed, re-appointed, elected or re-elected as a Director on the Board or continue to serve as a Director if the person is or becomes an active politician. A person is considered an “active politician” if he is a Member of Parliament, State Assemblyman or holds a position at the Supreme Council or division level in a political party.

2.3 Tenure of Directors

2.3.1 Pursuant to the Constitution of the Company, at the Annual General Meeting ("AGM"), one-third (1/3) of the Directors for the time being, or if their number is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one-third (1/3), shall retire from office at the conclusion of the AGM in every year provided always that all Directors shall retire from office at least once every three (3) years but shall be eligible for re-election.

2.3.2 The Directors to retire in every year shall be the Directors who have been longest in office since the Directors' last election, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, the Directors to retire shall be determined by lot, unless they otherwise agreed among themselves.

2.3.3 The tenure of an Independent Director shall not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine (9) years. Upon completion of the nine (9) years, an Independent Director, may continue to serve on the Board as a Non-Independent Director.

If the Board intends to retain an Independent Director beyond nine (9) years, it shall provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process in accordance with MCGG.

Notwithstanding of the above, the tenure of an Independent Director in any one (1) or more of the Company and its related corporations must not exceed a cumulative term of twelve (12) years from the date of his/her first appointment as an Independent Director. Upon completion of a cumulative term of twelve (12) years, such Independent Director may only continue to serve on the Board if he or she is re-designated as a Non-Independent Director.

2.3.4 A candidate shall not be considered fit for directorship if he or she:-

- (a) has been convicted by a court of law, whether within Malaysia or elsewhere, of an offence in connection with the promotion, formation or management of a corporation;
- (b) has been convicted by a court of law, whether within Malaysia or elsewhere, of an offence involving bribery, fraud or dishonesty or where the conviction involved a finding that he acted fraudulently or dishonestly; or
- (c) has been convicted by a court of law of an offence under the securities laws of Malaysia or the Act, within a period of five (5) years from the date of conviction or if sentenced to imprisonment, from the date of release from prison, as the case may be.

2.3.5 The office of a Director shall become vacant if the Director:-

- (a) resigns from office as Director by giving a written notice to the Company at its registered office;
- (b) is removed from office in accordance with Clause 91 of the Constitution of the Company;

- (c) becomes disqualified from being a Director under Section 198 or 199 of the Act;
- (d) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the Mental Health Act 2001;
- (e) dies;
- (f) has been convicted by a court of law, whether within Malaysia or elsewhere, in relation to the offences set out in paragraph 2.3.4;
- (g) is absent from more than 50% of the total Board meetings held during a financial year; or
- (h) otherwise vacates office in accordance with the Constitution of the Company.

2.4 Independent Non-Executive Directors

2.4.1 An Independent Director means a director who is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could interfere with the exercise of independent judgement or the ability to act in the best interests of the Group.

2.4.2 The roles of the Independent Non-Executive Directors are essential in bringing independent judgement and ensuring all issues proposed by the Executive Directors are fully discussed and examined to take into account the long-term interests, not only of the shareholders, but also other stakeholders such as the employees and business associates.

The roles of an Independent Director, among others, shall include:-

- (a) to provide and enhance necessary independence and objectivity of the Board including providing independent and objective views and advice;
- (b) ensure effective checks and balances on the Board;
- (c) to mitigate any potential conflict of interest that may arise in the governance of the Group;
- (d) to constructively challenge and contribute to the development of business strategies and direction of the Group; and
- (e) ensure adequate systems and controls are in place to safeguard the interests of the Group.

2.4.3 The Company may appoint a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director whose role shall include the following:

- (a) serves as a sounding board to the Chairman;
- (b) serves as an intermediary for other Directors when necessary;
- (c) leads the performance evaluation of the Chairman;
- (d) fosters objectivity in instances whereby the Chairman and Managing Director are related;

- (e) acts as point of contact for shareholders and other stakeholders particularly on concerns which cannot be resolved through the normal channels of the Chairman and/or Managing Director;
- (f) leads the succession planning and appointment of Board members, including the future Chairman and Managing Director; and
- (g) leads the annual review of Board effectiveness, ensuring that the performance of each individual Director is assessed objectively and holistically.

2.5 New Directorship and Time Commitment

- 2.5.1 Directors shall devote sufficient time to carry out their responsibilities. The Board shall obtain this commitment from its members at the time of appointment. Each Director is expected to commit time as and when required to discharge the relevant duties and responsibilities, besides attending meetings of the Board or Board Committees.
- 2.5.2 Any Director shall notify the Chairman of the Board before accepting any new directorship in other public companies or companies which are subsidiaries of public company.
- 2.5.3 The Chairman shall also notify the Board if he has any new directorship or significant commitments outside the Company.
- 2.5.4 Pursuant to Rule 15.06 of the Listing Requirements, the Directors must not hold more than five (5) directorships in companies listed on Bursa Securities.

- (h) drive strategic management of material sustainability matters;
- (i) assess the principal risks of the Group and ensuring that these risks are being monitored and managed;
- (j) creating and implementing the Company's vision and mission;

- (k) serving as a focal point for stakeholders' communication and engagement on corporate governance issues; and
- (l) acting within the authorities delegated to him by the Board and ensuring the limits of authority granted by the Board are adhered to.

3.3.4 In discharging his responsibilities, the Managing Director can delegate appropriate functions to any Executive Director, who shall report to him.

3.4 Executive and Non-Executive Directors

3.4.1 Executive Directors are the senior management of the Company involved in the day-to-day management of the Group.

3.4.2 Executive Directors assist the Board in decision-making process through their technical expertise and knowledge of the business and its industry.

3.4.3 Executive Directors, with the help of management, assist the Board in facilitating the orientation of new Directors and Director training and development.

3.4.4 Non-Executive Directors are the members of the Board who are not employees of the Group. Non-Executive Directors can be classified as:-

- those who have no direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the Group other than their Directors' emoluments and their permitted shareholdings in the Group;
- those who are not employees of the Group or affiliated with it in any other way and are not involved in the day-to-day running of business but may have a pecuniary interest in the Group, whether direct or indirect; or
- those who are not employees of the Group but are standing as nominees for substantial shareholders.

3.4.5 Non-Executive Directors need to be sound in judgement and to have an inquiring mind.

3.4.6 Non-Executive Directors should question intelligently, debate constructively, challenge rigorously and decide dispassionately.

3.4.7 Non-Executive Directors may act as a bridge between management, shareholders and other stakeholders. They should provide the relevant checks and balances, focusing on shareholders' and other stakeholders' interests and ensuring that high standards of corporate governance are applied.

3.4.8 The responsibilities of Non-Executive Directors are, amongst others, as follows:-

- (a) advising and directing management in the development and evaluation of strategy;
- (b) scrutinising the performance of management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and monitoring the reporting of performance;

- (c) satisfying themselves that the financial information presented is accurate; and
- (d) reviewing the risk management and internal control systems to ensure that they are robust and defensible.

4. BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board has set up the following Board Committees with different functions delegated to assist the Board in carrying out its duties and responsibilities:

- (a) Audit and Risk Management Committee;
- (b) Nomination Committee; and
- (c) Remuneration Committee.

Apart from the above Board Committees, the Board may from time to time establish other Board Committees to assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities more effectively.

These Board Committees do not make decision on behalf of the Board. Each Board Committee will have the authority to examine issues within its TOR and make the necessary recommendations to the Board for its consideration and decision making.

The duties and powers delegated to these Board Committees are set out in the TOR of each Board Committee as approved by the Board. The Board, through the NC, should review the Board Committees' effectiveness on an annual basis. These assessments can be used to facilitate the NC's evaluation of Board Committees' performance.

Independent Non-Executive Directors plays a leading role in these Board Committees. The Chairman of the respective Board Committees will report to the Board on the outcome of the Board Committee meetings.

The TOR of each Board Committee is available on the Company's website at www.glostrext.com.

5. BOARD MEETINGS

5.1 Frequency

Meetings of the Board should be held at least four (4) times in a year or more frequently to ensure that all Directors are kept informed on a timely basis of all material quality information affecting the Group and, in a form, and manner appropriate for them to discharge their duties effectively.

5.2 Notice and Agenda

The notice of Board Meeting, detail agenda and the supporting Board Papers should be given at least five (5) business days prior to each Board Meeting allowing Directors sufficient time to review the same except in the case of an emergency, where reasonable notice of every Board Meeting shall be given in writing. Directors are expected to review in advance Board Papers in order to facilitate meaningful deliberation during each meeting.

5.3 Quorum

The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business at such time and place, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings as they think fit. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of Directors shall be two (2).

5.4 Chairman's role in meeting

In the absence of the Chairman, the Directors present shall elect a Chairman from amongst themselves to chair the meeting. The Chairman encourages constructive and healthy debate and allows the Directors to freely express their views or share information with their peers in the course of deliberation as a participation in the Board deliberations.

5.5 Attendance

All Directors must meet the minimum 50% attendance requirement imposed under the Listing Requirements. Senior management who are not Directors may be invited to attend and speak at Board meetings on certain matters relating to their areas of responsibility. The Board may also invite external parties such as auditors, solicitors and consultants to attend as and when the need arises.

5.6 Meeting Mode

The Directors may participate at a Board Meeting or any Board Committee meeting by conference telephone, video, electronic or such other communication facilities which would permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously. The physical presence of Director(s) is not compulsory and participation at such Board Meeting in the aforesaid manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at such meeting. The Directors participating at any such Board Meeting shall be counted in the quorum for such meeting. All resolutions agreed upon by the Directors at such a meeting shall be deemed to be as effective as a resolution passed at a meeting in person of the Directors duly convened and held. All information and documents must be made equally available to all participants prior to, at or during the Board Meeting. The participation in a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar electronic telecommunication device shall be treated with confidence, and he/she shall prevent any leakage of information/materials to any third party.

5.7 Directors' Written Resolution

In the event matters requiring the Board's decision arise between Board Meetings, such matters shall be resolved through written resolutions which shall be supported by relevant papers setting out details of the subject matter. Such written resolutions signed or approved by a majority of the Directors entitled to vote and sign on the resolution, if transmitted to the Company by any technology purporting to include a signature and/or an electronic or digital signature by the Director shall be as valid and effectual as if it were a resolution duly passed at a Board Meeting. Such resolutions may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one (1) or more Board members.

5.8 Voting

All resolutions of the Board shall be adopted by a majority of votes of Directors present and voting, each Director having one (1) vote. In the case of an equality of votes, where two (2) Directors form a quorum, the Chairman of a meeting at which only such a quorum is present, or at which only two (2) Directors are competent to vote on the question at issue, shall not have a casting vote. Otherwise in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Directors are required to inform the Board of conflicts or potential conflict of interest that they may have in relation to a particular subject matter or business transaction. These Directors shall abstain from deliberation and voting on those matters.

5.9 Minutes

The minutes shall record the proceedings of the meeting, pertinent issues, inquiries or responses, members' suggestions and the decisions made, including whether or not any Director has abstained from voting or deliberating on a particular matter, as well as the rationale behind those decisions. Minutes of meeting shall be circulated to all members of the Board in a timely manner.

6. BOARD EVALUATION

On an annual basis, the Board, with the assistance of the NC, shall evaluate the performance of the individual Directors, the Board as a whole and the Board Committees to assess their performance and effectiveness.

The engagement of external consultants or experts to assist in the board evaluation shall be at the discretion of the Board.

7. REMUNERATION OF DIRECTOR

The performance of Directors is measured by the Directors' contribution and commitment to both the Board and the Company.

The fees and any benefits payable to the Directors shall be subject to annual shareholders' approval at a general meeting.

The Directors shall be paid all traveling, hotel and other reasonable expenses, properly and reasonably incurred by them in the execution of their duties including any such expenses incurred in connection with attending and returning from meetings of Directors or Board Committees or any other meetings of the Company in connection with the business of the Company in the course of the performance of their duties as Directors.

The Company shall provide a fair, reasonable and competitive remuneration for its Executive Directors to ensure that the Company attracts and retains high calibre Executive Directors who have the skills, experience and knowledge to increase entity value to the benefit of all shareholders.

The Board has established a formal and transparent process for approving the remuneration of Directors, whereby the Remuneration Committee is responsible for reviewing the remuneration policy and making recommendations on the same to the Board for approval. In its review, the Remuneration Committee considers various factors including fiduciary duties, time commitments expected of them and the Company's performance. The policies and procedures are to be reviewed periodically and made available on the Company's website.

8. INDUCTION AND TRAINING FOR BOARD MEMBERS

All newly-appointed Directors are required to complete the Mandatory Accreditation Programme required under the Listing Requirements.

All Directors shall continue to update their knowledge and enhance their skills through appropriate continuing education programmes to enable Directors to effectively discharge their duties and sustain active participation in Board deliberations.

The Board with the assistance of the NC, shall assess the training needs of the Directors from time to time, to ensure that Directors have access to training courses or seminars at periodic intervals to keep themselves updated on developments pertaining to the oversight function of Directors as well as continuing education programme in order to update their knowledge and skills to sustain their active participation in Board deliberations and effectively discharge their duties.

The Board shall disclose in the Annual Report of the Company with regards to the education programme or trainings attended by the Directors.

9. GENERAL MEETINGS

9.1 Annual General Meeting

9.1.1 An Annual General Meeting ("AGM") is a yearly gathering between the shareholders of the Company and its Board. The Directors must ensure that AGM provides an important opportunity for effective communication with, and constructive feedback from, the Company's shareholders.

9.1.2 The Company shall in each year hold an AGM within six (6) months of the Company's financial year end and not more than fifteen (15) months shall elapse between the date of one AGM and that of the next.

9.1.3 The notices convening an AGM shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting, and shall be given to all shareholders at least twenty-eight (28) days before the meeting. Any notice of meeting called to consider special business shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution in respect of such special business. At least twenty-eight (28) days' notice of such meeting shall be given by advertisement in at least one (1) nationally circulated Bahasa Malaysia or English daily newspaper. The notice period of AGM shall exclude the date of issuing the notice and the date of the AGM.

9.1.4 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. For all purposes, two (2) members present in person or by proxy, or, in the case of corporations which are members, present by their representatives appointed pursuant to the provision of the Company's Constitution and entitled to vote shall be a quorum.

9.2 General Meeting (“GM”)

9.2.1 The Company may also convene a GM other than AGM to transact other businesses.

9.2.2 The Directors may whenever they think fit, convene a GM. GMs shall also be convened on any requisition made in accordance with the provisions of the Act, or if the Company makes default in convening a GM in compliance with a requisition received pursuant to Section 311 of the Act, a GM may be convened by such requisitions in the manner provided in Section 313 of the Act. Any GM convened by requisitions shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which GMs are to be convened by the Directors.

9.2.3 Subject always to the provisions of Section 323 of the Act, no business shall be transacted at a GM except business of which notice has been given in the notice convening the GM.

9.2.4 The notices convening a GM shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting, and shall be given to all shareholders at least fourteen (14) days before the meeting or at least twenty-one (21) days before the meeting where any special resolution is to be proposed. At least fourteen (14) days’ notice or twenty-one (21) days’ notice in the case where any special resolution is proposed of such meeting shall be given by advertisement in at least one (1) nationally circulated Bahasa Malaysia or English daily newspaper. The notice period of GM shall exclude the date of issuing the notice and the date of the GM.

9.2.5 No business shall be transacted at any GM unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. For all purposes, two (2) members present in person or by proxy, or, in the case of corporations which are members, present by their representatives appointed pursuant to the provision of the Company’s Constitution and entitled to vote shall be a quorum.

9.3 To enhance the effectiveness of the AGM/GM, the Board will ensure the following best practices are met:-

- (i) Pursuant to Practice 13.1 of the MCCG, notice for an AGM will be given to shareholders at least 28 days prior to the meeting;
- (ii) All Directors to attend the AGM/GM;
- (iii) Ensure the Chairman provides reasonable time for discussion at the AGM/GM;
- (iv) Ensure that the AGM/GM support meaningful engagement between the Board, senior management and shareholders;
- (v) Ensure that all resolutions set out in the notice of AGM/GM are voted by poll;
- (vi) Ensure at least one (1) scrutineer is appointed to validate the votes cast at the AGM/GM;
- (vii) Leverage technology to facilitate voting including voting in absentia and remote shareholders’ participation at AGM/GM and to take the necessary steps to ensure good cyber hygiene practices are in place including data privacy and security to prevent cyber threats;
- (viii) Ensure that there is a channel of communication for feedback and queries from shareholders; and
- (ix) Ensure minutes of the AGM/GM are circulated to shareholders or uploaded onto the Company’s website no later than thirty (30) business days after the AGM/GM.

10. ACCESS TO INFORMATION

All Directors shall have unrestricted access to the management to any information pertaining to the Group, including access to the advice and services of the Company's auditors and consultants, Company Secretary, which is relevant to the furtherance of their duties and responsibilities as Directors of the Company at the expense of the Company.

11. INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONAL ADVICE

In discharging the Directors' duties, each Board member is entitled to obtain independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. This is for advice deemed relevant and necessary in order for the Directors to discharge their duties for the overall benefit of the Group.

In such circumstances, the Director shall first discuss it with the Chairman and provide the request to seek professional independent advice for the Board's consideration and approval. It must be noted that such a restriction is not applicable to the Executive Director who is acting in his or her capacity of the furtherance of his/her executive responsibilities and within his/her delegate powers.
